

Modern Man

Chorus                   Is this the modern, modern man
                              He read about life in a magazine
                              He's just like the man on your TV

Verse 1                   He watches the tube
                              It tells him what jeans to wear
                              The tube gets him in the mood
                              His favorite goddess on the air

Verse 2                   He pays for all the labels
                              He doesn't want to be a square
                              He has video and cable
                              A stereo beyond compare

Chorus                   Is this the modern, modern man
                              He read about life in a magazine
                              He's just like the man on your TV

Music Break

Chorus                   Is this the modern, modern man
                              He read about life in a magazine
                              He's just like the man on your TV

Verse 3                   His companion's a computer date
                              She's the female with the drawn-on eyes
                              They both know how to imitate
                              Twentieth century lives

Chorus                   Is this the modern, modern man
                              He read about life in a magazine
                              He's just like the man on your TV
